

THE HOOKUP

About The Band

The Hook Up is an original rock & roll trio formed in Appleton, WI. Their music is driven with powerful hooks, and lyrical density that will take the listener inside their eclectic creative process. It's as if Bush, Jack White, and Weezer melded together to create The Hook Up. The diverse music tastes of the members is what allows them to create unique and yet powerful rock music. The Hook Up's personality, swagger, and musicianship shine through while they drop waves of inspired sounds. With the ability to not only perform original work, but cover tunes as well, the band ensures the audience is in for a wild night. They bring a sense of energy and showmanship to the live show that the audience can feel. Let The Hook Up take your eyes and ears for a ride!

In August of 2016 the band released their latest single "Hold Your Breath." That song is just a teaser of what they have in store on their next release in
